
Don't spend any more of your time and money on blind dates, movies that limit the artistic capabilities of the characters you play and movies that don't even answer all of your questions. Get these films with subtitles for free and get to know someone who's different from you in a way that's comfortable and familiar. In today's world, we have so many options when it comes to finding love I can't imagine not being able to find anything I'm looking for. That's why I created this matchmaking match made in heaven of my favorite movies with English subtitles. From Charlie Chaplin to Charlie Sheen, from Marilyn Monroe to Marilyn Manson, the list is endless. And while some of these movies are extremely difficult to watch without subtitles, they are equally difficult to watch without question. Therefore, the purpose of this video is not only for new people trying to find their Valentine but also for all fans of these actors and actresses who love them so much that they will go out on a limb and try new things. Because some of them will make you laugh while some others will make you think. Even some others will make you laugh hard while some others will make you cry... And some others will make you want to fight some more. So here we go, one step at a time, new people trying to find their Valentine and some of the most famous actors and actresses of our time looking for a partner in crime. To start it off, I have the award-winning indie film "Cosmopolitan Girl" from one of my favorite directors Samuel Maoz. This is a story about a young man who is totally obsessed with the brand Cosmopolitan Girl that has been selling since his childhood ("if you can add orange on your Cosmo Girl shirt then you're ready"). The problem with this obsession is that he tries to reach his goal by any means necessary without asking anyone along the way. Who is perfect for this man if not the Cosmo Girl herself? If you thought I was done with this movie, think again. I decided to make a sequel to it called "Bolt Runner". It's not about people pushing themselves to the limit just because they saw someone else do it on TV. It's about people pushing themselves to the limit without asking anyone along the way. You'll see that at the beginning of the film Justin Bieber wants to become famous by himself and not through his fans so he sets up his own fan page and sets everything in motion. Everybody knows this could never work but let's see what happens... Actors in this movie are Justin Bieber, Enrique Iglesias, Lady Gaga, Martin Scorsese and Jude Law. Okay so I'm home alone when I get a call from my agent telling me about this new film called "The Man From Copenhagen". That's right, it's about an actor named Nils which is not his real name. He's actually playing Peter Severin in one of his last roles. Who could play Peter Severin? My good friend Dania Gurrola who is also one of the biggest fans of Hollywood icons Charlie Chaplin and Charlie Sheen. Plus this film was directed by my good friend Mathieu Denis who directed one of the greatest movies ever called "Being John Malkovich."
